Dogs Trust, Battersea Dogs Home and North Shore Animal League International, have produced an overseas Education booklet for young people. The booklet has been written in English to help with language skills and focuses on street dog issues such as the benefits of neutering dogs.

There are lots of activities, which can be completed individually or within a classroom.

The booklet follows the basis of English and Social Studies classes.

www.sharetheworld.com/

A free humane education programme designed to help students better understand and appreciate the animals with whom we share our world. In the reproducible activities that form the heart of this programme, students use their thinking and writing skills to imagine the feelings and consider the incredible abilities of other animals, examine how our relationships with them have changed through history, discover alternatives to their use, and respond to situations in which their well-being is threatened.

www.teachkind.com/

TeachKind is the education programme of People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals which provides free high-quality lesson plans and materials that will help students develop critical thinking skills, empathy, compassion, and civic responsibility while empowering them to take compassionate action for animals in their own communities.
